Annual Book Sale

Every summer, the Clarendon Hills Public Library hosts it's Annual Book Sale. This annual book sale is one of our largest fundraisers, and it would not be possible without the generous donations of the community, and the hard work and dedication of our wonderful staff.

Thank you!

Donating Books & Materials

CLARENDON HILLS
PUBLIC LIBRARY | grow with us

Thank you for your interest in donating!

Donated books and materials play an important role in our collection, reading programs, and annual book sale.

Book donations, like other non-cash or cash donations, are tax deductible as charitable donations. Upon request, staff can provide you with a receipt for income tax purposes. Staff cannot estimate the monetary value of book donations, but the receipt can indicate the total number of books donated.

Donated materials may be used for:

- Adding to the library's collection
- Annual Book Sale
- Birches Assisted Living Community
- Summer Reading Programming

The Library will accept:

- Adult and juvenile books - paperback, hardcover, fiction, non-fiction
- Adult Audiobooks (compact CD's)
- Music CDs
- DVDs

The Library will NOT accept:

- Books in poor condition
- Discarded materials from libraries
- Encyclopedia sets
- Magazines
- Music cassettes or vinyl records
- Reader's Digest condensed books
- Textbooks
- VHS movies
- Materials in the following subjects that are more than 5 years old: Business, Finance, Health, Medicine, Science

Guidelines for Bringing in Donations

Please bring your book donations to the Circulation Desk or place them in the donation bin in the lower level of the library.

- Bring your materials in boxes or bags that you can leave with the library
- Call the library in advance if you wish to donate a large number of boxes of books
- Do NOT leave donated materials in the book drop or on the sidewalks
- The library cannot use books with the following conditions: Ripped covers, broken spines, written on, moldy, or musty
- The library reserves the right to refuse donations
